FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“The Road to the Court of Appeals: Demystifying the Process”

Ahead of Upcoming Vacancy on the Court of Appeals, Commission on Judicial Nomination to Hold Open Discussion About the Nomination Process in Albany

Under the Constitution of the State of New York, the Commission on Judicial Nomination is entrusted with responsibility for evaluating, and then recommending to the Governor, candidates to fill vacancies on the State’s highest court, the Court of Appeals of the State of New York. The Commission vigorously seeks out, carefully evaluates, and then nominates to the Governor well qualified candidates from the extraordinary, diverse community of lawyers admitted to practice in New York State for at least 10 years.

As part of the Commission’s process of identifying and nominating potential successors to Senior Associate Judge Carmen Beauchamp Ciparick, who must retire under the State’s Constitution, the Commission will be conducting several meetings around the State to discuss the requirements for the position and the Commission’s procedures and rules for submitting recommendations of qualified candidates. The meetings are open to the public, and all are encouraged to attend and express their views (orally or in writing) about community needs, the general qualifications for judicial office, and the nominating process.

The first meeting will be on Tuesday, May 8, 2012, from 5:30 PM – 7:30 PM, at the New York State Bar Association, 1 Elk Street, Albany, New York 12207. Hon. Judith S. Kaye, former Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals and the sitting Chair of the Commission on Judicial Nomination, will host the meeting, and will discuss the process of applying to join the Court of Appeals with former Associate Judge Howard A. Levine. In addition to Judges Kaye and Levine scheduled speakers and panelists include:

Mylan L. Denerstein, Counsel to Governor Cuomo;
Robert Schofield, President of the Albany County Bar Association;
Lillian Moy, Executive Director, Legal Aid Society of Northeastern New York;
Anne Erickson, President of the Empire Justice Center;
Connie Mayer, Acting Dean of Albany Law School;
Henry M. Greenberg, partner at Greenberg Traurig, former Counsel to then-Attorney General Andrew M. Cuomo and former clerk to Judge Kaye; and Stephen P. Younger, Counsel, Commission on Judicial Nomination.

It is not necessary to register in advance to attend.

If any person or organization wishes to receive copies of future Commission press releases, please provide an email or mailing address to: Commission on Judicial Nomination, Attn: Stephen P.
